GAY P. RESULLAR
OIC, CENR Officer
Brgy. Magosilom, Cantilan SdS

Dear Ma'am Resullar:

Greetings!

This is in connection with my application for Lumber Dealer Registration (LDR) permit, which I submitted online. I was recently informed that my application was returned by the PENRO due to the following important concerns:

1. Change of Business Address

Please allow me to clarify that the change of address does not indicate a change in the actual location of my business operations. Upon the recommendation of the monitoring officers from CENRO Cantilan, I updated the address to reflect Brgy. Patong-patong, Madrid, Surigao del Sur, as indicated in the Tax Declaration. To support this, I have secured a Certification from the Municipal Assessor stating that the property is indeed located along the National Highway in Brgy. Patong-patong, Madrid, Surigao del Sur.

2. Justification for Late Renewal of LDR Permit

The delay in the renewal of my LDR permit was primarily due to financial constraints, which affected our time to secure the necessary requirements and make the required payments. For instance, obtaining an updated Income Tax Return took longer than expected. Additionally, we were later informed of the need to submit documents that were not initially listed among the requirements such as the PTPR permit, Stand and Stock Table, and the revised Annual Business Plan, which needed to reflect validity.

In view of the above, I respectfully request your understanding and favorable consideration of my application. I am fully committed to complying with all necessary requirements and to operating my business in accordance with the DENR regulations.

Thank you very much and more power.

Very truly yours,

ALVIN U. ORTEGA
